Title: Peace, and Comfort in Troubled Times

Text: 2 Corinthians 1:1-7

- God wants me to personify the life of Christ, emitting His fragrance everywhere I go.
- God wants me to know His peace and comfort.
- The early Church faced persecution all over the Roman Empire. 2 Timothy 3:12
- Every Christian has peace with God. What we need each day is the peace of God. v.2 Romans 5:1; Philippians 4:6-7; Romans 8:28, 31, 39; Job 13:15; 23:10

What should I praise God for?

✓	Praise Him for the past when He saved me	Ephesians 1:3-5
✓	Praise Him for my future inheritance	1 Peter 1:3-4
✓	Praise Him today for His mercy and comfort	2 Corinthians 1:3

God is present to comfort, encourage, strengthen and help me Verses 3-7

Our Heavenly Father is the God of all comfort

1)	by providing for my salvation	Romans 5:1-6
2)	by the Holy Spirit	Romans 5:5; 8:16; John 14:16
3)	by the promises in His Word	Psalm 119:165
4)	by delivering me from my trials	Psalm 34:4-8
5)	through other believers	verse 4; Galatians 6:2
