

Isaiah 32
Thy Kingdom Come

The Coming Kingdom (1-8)

Led by a Righteous King (Revelation 15:3-4)

Ruled in justice (Psalm 9:7-10)

Ruled by godly men (Revelation 20:6)

Learning minds

Free to learn and speak truth (I Corinthians 2:14 / II Corinthians 4:4)

Fools exposed

They are no longer respected

There practices are exposed

There error concerning the LORD is seen

There false hope and lies are made clear

Free and noble men, making noble plans, standing by noble deeds

The complacent women (9-13)

Their security will crumble (Matthew 6:19-21; 13:22)

Their pleasantries will vanish (James 5:1-5)

The change – His Spirit will be poured out (14-20) (Joel 2:28-32)

The fortress and the land have become desolate

The Spirit will restore and bring blessing

Justice

Peace

Confidence

Security

Blessing

Discussion questions for Isaiah 32

Why do the ungodly often rise to power? (Deuteronomy 8:10-14/II Chronicles 12:5-8)

What is required for us to develop learning minds? (Proverbs 1:7; 9:10 / Psalm 111:10 / I Corinthians 2:14-16 / Colossians 2:2-3)

What leads women to become complacent? Why is this so destructive for a culture? (Isaiah 3:16 – 4:1 / I Timothy 5:11-15)

What results when God's Spirit is poured out among a people? (II Peter 1:5 / John 13:34-35)