

Isaiah 34
Armageddon

Angry with all nations (1-4)

Pay attention! (Hebrews 2:1 / II Peter 1:19)

Planning to destroy the world's armies (Zechariah 12:3 / Revelation 16:14-16)

Putrid smell of dead bodies (Revelation 15:15-18)

Passing of the heavens (Matthew 24:29 / II Peter 3:10)

A sacrifice in Bozrah (5-7)

Sword bathed in the blood of sacrifices (Revelation 14:19-20)

Sacrifice in Bozrah (Isaiah 63:1)

Slaughter in Edom (Amos 1:11-12)

A day of vengeance (8-17)

Upholding Zion's cause (Zechariah 14:1-9)

Unquenched fire upon Edom (Malachi 1:3-5)

Utterly desolate – forever the home of jackals and owls (Jeremiah 49:13)

Discussion questions for Isaiah 34

Why is it critical for us to pay attention to God's word. (Luke 24:25) How does it help us to navigate through the times in which we live?

Knowing what will happen in days to come – how then should we live? (II Peter 3:9-13)

God has stored up vengeance for His enemies, but He also purges His people. What does He look for among those who call upon His name? (Matthew 25:31-46)

Isaiah 34
Armageddon

Angry with all nations (1-4)

Not a single nation will stand with Israel in the last days

Pay attention! (Hebrews 2:1 / II Peter 1:19)

God's word is true! (Luke 24:25)

Planning to destroy the world's armies (Zechariah 12:3 / Revelation 16:14-16)

All the armies of man and all the demon's of Satan are no match for our God

Putrid smell of dead bodies (Revelation 15:15-18)

A blood bath 180 miles long

Passing of the heavens (Matthew 24:29 / II Peter 3:10)

The earth will shake and the stars will fall – imagine the terror

A sacrifice in Bozrah (5-7)

The fortress where His people will flee from the antichrist (Revelation 12:13-14)

Sword bathed in the blood of sacrifices (Revelation 14:19-20)

Thrown into the winepress of God's wrath

Sacrifice in Bozrah (Isaiah 63:1)

Where Jesus returns to rescue His people

Slaughter in Edom (Amos 1:11-12)

Continual anger raging against his brother Jacob

A day of vengeance (8-17)

For all the nations that have not obeyed the LORD (Micah 5:15)

Upholding Zion's cause (Zechariah 14:1-9)

God gathers Israel's enemies for destruction.

Unquenched fire upon Edom (Malachi 1:3-5)

A people always under the wrath of God

Utterly desolate – forever the home of jackals and owls (Jeremiah 49:13)

Bozrah will become a ruin forever

Discussion questions for Isaiah 34

Why is it critical for us to pay attention to God's word. (Luke 24:25) How does it help us to navigate through the times in which we live? God's word is true! He has given us everything we need for life and godliness (II Peter 1:3-4) The prophecies of the Scriptures will all come to pass. We cannot pick and choose which ones seem favorable to us. The promises of His word are guaranteed. We can cling to His promises whenever we face hard times.

Knowing what will happen in days to come – how then should we live? (II Peter 3:9-13)
We are called to live in righteousness. We must not become enamored with this world (Romans 12:2 / I John 2:15-17). As we look to our blessed hope, we understand that we belong to Jesus – as a people eager to do what is good. (Titus 2:13-14)

God has stored up vengeance for His enemies, but He also purges His people. What does He look for among those who call upon His name? (Matthew 25:31-46)

Those who have remained true to His Name (Revelation 3:8)

Those who have not been enticed away by this world (II Timothy 4:9)

Those who have not compromised His word (II Timothy 4:1-5)

Those who live and demonstrate His love toward others